Women & Addictive Illness 101

Saturday, November 19, 2011

10:30am – 2pm

At St. Paul’s Cathedral in The Great Hall
2728 6th Avenue, San Diego, CA 92103

Cost: $20.00 for a gourmet bag lunch, program & CEUs (MFT, LCSW & CAADAC) *Special Student Price of $15

Mission of Seminar: To educate and engage clinicians and community members about women’s issues in regards to addictive illness. Coming from a biologically-endorsed harm-reductionist position, our esteemed panel will speak to several of the most salient clinical issues impacting women in their effort to achieve long-term sobriety. Discussions will include: trauma, shame-based views, special needs of lesbian community, issues for military wives, and the difficulty in identifying unique, gender-linked, biological and psychodynamic needs of women with addictive illness. Issues for women dealing with addictive illness in a partner or offspring will also be addressed.

A panel of clinical experts, patients and family members includes:

- Wendy Khentigan, MD, Clinician in private practice
- Karen Bogin, MSW, Psychotherapist with UCSD Co-Occurring Disorders Program
- Lindsey Kramer, MFTI, Psychotherapist at San Diego Youth Services
- Carla Manson, LCSW, US Navy Drug & Alcohol Program
- Caroline Stewart, LCSW, UCSD Psychiatric Associates Provider, Caroline Stewart & Associates
- Connie Collins, LCSW, Psychotherapist with Stepping Stone of San Diego
- Barbara Yoes, Consumer/Patient Advocate, UCSD
- Moderator: Gretchen Burns Bergman, Co-Founder, Executive Director A New PATH

Sponsored by A New PATH (Parents for Addiction Treatment & Healing)
Co-Sponsored by Sharp Mesa Vista Hospital

Course meets the qualifications for 3 hours of continuing education credit for MFTs and/or LCSWs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Science. Sharp Mesa Vista Hospital is an approved provider for CEUs for the MFT and/or LCSW professionals (PCE 4690). 3.0 CEUs for CAADAC provided by CAADAC Region One South
