Saturday, January 21: Nation's Leading Drug Policy Reform Advocate Will Discuss the War on Drugs and the Politics of Harm Reduction

Nadelmann Available for Interviews on Current Drug Policy Issues in San Diego, California and Nationwide

Described by Rolling Stone as the point man for drug policy reform efforts, Ethan Nadelmann is widely regarded as the outstanding proponent of drug policy reform both in the United States and abroad. Nadelmann has been invited by St Paul's Cathedral and A New PATH (Parents for Addiction Treatment and Healing) to speak at St Paul's Cathedral from 9am to noon on Saturday, January 21, in the great hall at 2728 6th Ave, San Diego, Ca 92103.

Nadelmann will be available for interviews, and he can address issues specific to San Diego as well as statewide and national concerns, including:

- * The San Diego County Supervisor's opposition to medical marijuana (and Prop 215)
- * The upcoming student drug testing summit in San Diego (on February 22 2006)
- * California's Prop 36, the country's largest diversion program
- * Syringe exchange in San Diego and beyond
- * The illegal drug trade and border communities (such as San Diego and Tijuana)
- * Methamphetamine use
- * The relationship between drugs and terrorism
- * The state of drug policy reform in America

Nadelmann is the Executive Director of the Drug Policy Alliance <<http://en.groundspring.org/EmailNow/pub.php?module=URLTracker&cmd=track&j=8207938&u=68139>> , the nation's leading drug policy reform organization, and advocates for drug policies grounded in science, compassion, health and human rights.

Mr. Nadelmann received his B.A., J.D., and Ph.D. in Political Science from Harvard as well as a Masters's degree in International Relations from the London School of Economics, and taught Princeton University for seven years. Nadelmann's writings have appeared in numerous publications such as Science, Rolling Stone, and National Review, and he has appeared on TV and radio programs including ABC's Nightline, a Ted Koppel Special Report, NBC's Today Show, NBC Nightly News, CBS's 48 Hours, CBS Morning News, and Larry King Live.
